

Historic, archived document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

ADVERTISER

WRITER

PROGRAM TITLE FARM AND HOME HOUR

OK

CHICAGO OUTLET UNCLE SAM'S FOREST RANGERS #437

() WMAQ-RED ()

TIME
11:30-12:30 PM CDSTDATE
MAY 30, 1941DAY
FRIDAY

PRODUCTION

ANNOUNCER

ENGINEER

REMARKS

1. ANNOUNCER: Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers. Wait all put together, Jim?
2. MUSIC: THEME. Yes, Jerry. But I'll be ready by the time you are.
3. ANNOUNCER: Well folks, according to Tennyson this is the time of
4. year when a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love.
5. But Izaak Walton, the famous Compleat Angler, would only partly agree with
6. that. According to Izaak Walton this is the time of year when the
7. thoughts of every true angler, regardless of age and love affairs, turn to
8. fish and fishing. And so for the sake of the anglers here's a word about
9. fishing in our National Forests. The Forest Service of the U. S.
10. Department of Agriculture tells us that the thousands of mountain lakes,
11. clear fast-running streams and the slower rivers and meandering brooks
12. in the Nation Forests are stocked with almost every variety of American
13. fish. And fishing opportunities are available for millions of anglers.
14. Whether it's the golden grayling of Montana, the bream of Alabama, the
15. muskellunge of Wisconsin, or the steelhead of Washington you'll find them
16. all in the National Forests. Just don't forget to be careful with fire,
17. and take your fishing license along. State game laws apply to hunting and
18. fishing in the National Forests just as on surrounding private lands.
19. Information regarding open seasons and license fees can be obtained from
20. the State Fish and Game Departments. So let's go fishing, and for some
21. of the best fishing anywhere the U. S. Forest Service cordially invites
22. you to come to the National Forests. I nicker and a cork on her line. She
23. Well the fishing's been mighty good out on the Pine Cone
24. National Forest this spring, too. Today as we look in on our friends Ranger
25. Jim Robbins, his wife Bess, Jerry Quick the assistant ranger and Jerry's sweetheart, Mary Halloway, the Winding Creek school teacher, we find them enjoying the holiday, like thousands of other Americans, at a quiet forest campground beside a trout stream. Here they are: Her occupied.

Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers.

ANNOUNCER:

THEME.

MUSIC:

Well folks, according to Tennessee this is the time of

ANNOUNCER:

year when a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love

But Isaac Walton, the famous Compleat Angler, would only partly agree with that. According to Isaac Walton this is the time of year when the thoughts of every true angler, regardless of age and love affairs, turn to fish and fishing. And so for the sake of the anglers here's a word about fishing in our National Forests. The Forest Service of the U. S.

Department of Agriculture tells us that the thousands of mountain lakes,

clear fast-running streams and the slower rivers and meandering brooks

in the Nation Forests are stocked with almost every variety of American fish. And fishing opportunities are available for millions of anglers.

Whether it's the golden grayling of Montana, the bream of Alabama, the muskelunge of Wisconsin, or the steelhead of Washington you'll find them all in the National Forests. Just don't forget to be careful with fire.

and take your fishing license along. State game laws apply to hunting and fishing in the National Forests just as on surrounding private lands.

Information regarding open seasons and license fees can be obtained from the State Fish and Game Departments. So let's go fishing, and for some of the best fishing anywhere the U. S. Forest Service cordially invites you to come to the National Forests.

Well the fishing's been mighty good out on the Pine Cone

National Forest this spring, too. Today as we look in on our friends Ranger

Jim Robbins, his wife Bees, Jerry Quirk the assistant ranger and Jerry's sweetheart, Mary Holloway, the Windy Creek school teacher, we find them enjoying the holiday, like thousands of other Americans, at a quiet forest campsite beside a trout stream. Here they are!

1. JERRY: (COMING ON) You got your outfit all put together, Jim?
2. JIM: Not quite, Jerry. But I'll be ready by the time you are.
3. JERRY: Well I finally got Mary's pole rigged up and got her out
4. MARY: of the way. I swear, Jim, when a man wants to go fishin'
5. he ought to leave all the women-folks at home. More
6. JERRY: trouble.... on, Jim. Let's go and get out of here where
7. JIM: (CHUCKLES) Oh they get as much of a kick out of it,
8. JIM: or maybe even more than we do, Jerry. All set now.
9. JERRY: PAUSE: Yeah I reckon, but if they'd all be sensible like Mrs.
10. PAUSE IN SOUND OF Robbins and bring their knittin' along and keep out of the 11. JERRY: way it'd be different. Wouldn't have got a worse knot in this
12. JIM: Where'd Bess get to?
13. JERRY: Oh she's over there at the big hole with Mary, watchin'
14. her scare all the trout away. By the time we get there,
15. JERRY: there won't be a trout left within two miles of here. worse
16. JIM: (CHUCKLES) Been so long since I've had a trout pole in
17. MARY: my hand I'll probably do as bad or worse than Mary.
18. What kind of fly do you think they'll be bitin' on today,
19. JERRY: Jerry? know... Well there it is, finally. Next time don't
20. JERRY: Gray hackle, yellow body, Jim. That's what I'm gonna use
21. and that'll be as good as any. (LAUGHS) Mary thought she
22. MARY: ought to have a lead sinker and a cork on her line. She
23. JERRY: couldn't make a fly go where she wanted it. I told her I
24. didn't have any lead or cork but I did put on one of those
25. crazy Paul Bunyan bugs I got from that fellow down in Willow Glen last year. I think they're about half and half.
lead and cork. She'll never get any civilized trout to look at the thing but it'll keep her occupied.

1. JERRY: (COMING ON) You got your outfit all put together, Jim?
2. JIM: Not quite, Jerry. But I'll be ready by the time you are.
3. JERRY: Well I finally got Mary's pole rigged up and got her out
4. of the way. I swear, Jim, when a man wants to go fishing
5. he ought to leave all the women-folks at home. More
6. trouble....
7. JIM: (CHUCKLES) Oh they get as much of a kick out of it
8. or maybe even more than we do, Jerry.
9. JERRY: Yeah I reckon, but if they'd all be sensible like Mrs.
10. Robbins and bring their knittin' along and keep out of the
11. way it'd be different.
12. JIM: Where'd Beas get to?
13. JERRY: Oh she's over there at the big hole with Mary, watchin'
14. her scare all the trout away. By the time we get there
15. there won't be a trout left within two miles of here.
16. JIM: (CHUCKLES) Been so long since I've had a trout pole in
17. my hand I'll probably do as bad or worse than Mary.
18. What kind of fly do you think they'll be bitin' on today,
19. Jerry?
20. JERRY: Gray hackle, yellow body, Jim. That's what I'm gonna use
21. and that'll be as good as any. (LAUGHS) Mary thought she
22. ought to have a lead sinker and a cork on her line. She
23. couldn't make a fly go where she wanted it. I told her I
24. didn't have any lead or cork but I did put on one of those
25. crazy Paul Bunyan bugs I got from that fellow down in Willow Glen last year. I think they're about half and half lead and cork. She'll never get any civilized trout to look at the thing but it'll keep her occupied.

1. MARY: (SHOUTING OFF) Jerry! Hurry up! I saw a fish.

2. JERRY: (SHOUTS) Well don't just look at 'em. The idea is to catch

3. them. fishing pole in her hands.

4. MARY: (SHOUTING OFF) I know. I tried to. But I got my line all

5. JERRY: tangled up. anything.

6. JERRY: Oh me! Come on, Jim. Let's go and get out of here where

7. she can't holler at us any more.

8. JIM: (CHUCKLES) Okay, Jerry. I guess I'm all set now.

9. SLIGHT PAUSE:

10. FADE IN SOUND OF MOUNTAIN STREAM. RIPPLING BACK.

11. JERRY: Good night Mary, you couldn't have got a worse knot in this

12. JERRY: line even if you'd tried. I been so busy gettin' her

13. MARY: But it wasn't my fault, Jerry. The fish came up close to

14. my bait... in the water.

15. JERRY: Not bait, Mary. That's a bug ... a lure. Bait means worms

16. JERRY: or something like that and we're not worm fishermen.

17. MARY: Well anyway the fish came up for my bug and I tried to 18. JERRY: catch him and the knot just came in the line. oh so go to

19. JERRY: Yeah, I know...Well there it is, finally. Next time don't

20. BASS: give the line such a hard jerk. Even if a fish did take the

21. fly you'd pull the hook right out of his mouth. neat along.

22. MARY: All right...I'll remember. We'll have fish Ah.

23. JERRY: Yeah and be careful of that tree limb up there too so you

24. MARY: don't get your hook hung up in that. Now you stay up

25. JERRY: here and I'm goin' down below there at the bottom of the pool where Jim is.

(SHOUTING OFF) Jerry! Harry up! I saw a fish.

MARY:

(SHOUTS) Well don't just look at 'em. The idea is to catch them.

JERRY:

(SHOUTING OFF) I know. I tried to. But I got my line all tangled up.

MARY:

Oh me! Come on, Jim. Let's go and get out of here where she can't bother at us any more.

JERRY:

(CHUCKLES) Okay, Jerry. I guess I'm all set now.

JIM:

SLIGHT PAUSE:

FADE IN SOUND OF MOUNTAIN STREAM.

Good night Mary, you couldn't have got a worse knot in this line even if you'd tried.

JERRY:

But it wasn't my fault, Jerry. The fish came up close to my bait...

MARY:

Not bait, Mary. That's a bug... a lure. Bait means worms

JERRY:

or something like that and we're not worm fishermen.

Well anyway the fish came up for my bug and I tried to catch him and the knot just came in the line.

MARY:

Yeah, I know... Well there it is, finally. Next time don't give the line such a hard jerk. Even if a fish did take the 20.

JERRY:

fly you'd pull the hook right out of his mouth.

21.

All right... I'll remember.

MARY:

Yeah and be careful of that tree limb up there too so you don't get your hook hung up in that. Now you stay up 24.

JERRY:

here and I'm going down below there at the bottom of the 25.

pool where Jim is.

1. MARY: Mrs. Robbins is down there too.

2. JERRY: Yeah I see her. (SOTTO. GOING OFF) But at least she doesn't

3. have a fishing pole in her hands.

4. MARY: (SLIGHTLY OFF) What'd you say, Jerry?

5. JERRY: I didn't say anything.

6. MARY: (OFF) Oh. I thought you said something about how to

7. hold my pole in my hands.

8. JERRY: No. Nothin' at all. Just keep your line free.

9. SLIGHT PAUSE:

10. SOUND OF BRUSH CRACKING WITH WATER RIPPLING BACK.

11. BESS: Did you get Mary's line straightened out, Jerry?

12. JERRY: Yeah finally, Mrs. Robbins. I been so busy gettin' her

13. fixed up and straightened out I haven't even had a chance

14. to get a fly in the water.

15. BESS: Jim has been having trouble too.

16. JERRY: (SHOUTS) What's the matter Jim?

17. JIM: I got a back lash, Jerry.

18. JERRY: (LAUGHS) You're as bad as Mary. Now just watch me go to 19. town.

20. BESS: I certainly hope you do, Jerry. I hope somebody catches

21. some fish. You know I didn't bring any other meat along.

22. JERRY: Don't ^{you}/worry, Mrs. Robbins. We'll have fish Ah.

23. Look at that cast. The fly lit right where I wanted it.

24. MARY: (OFF, SCREAMS) Jerry, I've got one!

25. JERRY: Wow. So have I. Do the best you can. I can't help you now.

Mrs. Robbins is down there too.

Yeah I see her. (GROANS) But at least she's not have a fishing pole in her hands.

(SIGHING) What'd you say, Jerry?

I didn't say anything.

(GROANS) Oh, I thought you said something about how bold my pole in my hands.

No, Herman, at all. Just keep your line free.

OF RIVER CRACKING WITH WATER RIBBLING BACK.

Did you get Mary's line straightened out, Jerry?

Yeah finally, Mrs. Robbins. I been so busy getting fixed up and straightened out I haven't even had a

to get a fly in the water.

Jim has been having trouble too.

(GROANS) What's the matter Jim?

I got a back lash, Jerry.

(GROANS) You're as bad as Mary. Now just watch me come.

I certainly hope you do, Jerry. I hope somebody catches

some fish. You know I didn't bring any other meat along.

Don't worry, Mrs. Robbins. We'll have fish.... Ah

look at that cast. The fly lit right where I wanted it.

(GROANS) Jerry, I've got one.

Well, to have it. Do the best you can. I can't help you.

1. MARY: (OFF) Jerry! What do I do?

2. BESS: I'm coming, Mary. Keep pulling on the line.

3. JERRY: Hey Jim! I think I've got a whale. Look at him go.

4. JIM: (OFF) Give him line, Jerry.

5. BESS: Pull, Mary. Don't let go. Run back up the bank and pull

6. him up.

7. MARY: There it is, Mrs. Robbins. It's out on the rocks but it's

8. off the hook (SCREAMS) Catch it quick!

9. BESS: (GRUNTS) M-m. There. I've got it, Mary.

10. MARY: Oh good. Where?

11. BESS: RIGHT HERE. I'm sitting on it...Be careful, it's awfully

12. slippery and it's still trying to get away.

13. MARY: Woop. Ah. There. I've got it now. Through the gills...

14. Jerry! Mr. Robbins, look!....

15. JERRY: (COMING UP) Can you imagine it, Jim? I had him and then

16. I didn't have him. Broke the leader smack in two.

17. Oh boy, what a fish.

18. JIM: (CHUCKLING) That's too bad, Jerry. But you missed all the

19. fun. You should have been watchin' those two up above,

20. there. (LAUGHS) Mary horsed that trout out of the water and

21. Bess landed on it there in the rocks.

22. BESS: (OFF) Jim! Isn't it a beauty?

23. MARY: (OFF) Jerry, look! My first one!

24. JERRY: (REGRETFULLY) It sure is a nice one all right.

25. JIM: I'll tell the world it is. Sixteen inches if it's an inch.

Come on, let's go on up there and take a look at it.

What do I do?

Keep pulling on the line.

I think I've got a whole. Look at him go.

(GARY) Give him line, Jerry.

Paul, Mary. Don't let go. Run back up the bank and pull him up.

There it is, Mrs. Robbins. It's out on the rocks.

off the rock (SORENSEN) Catch it quick!

(GRUNT) Man. There. I've got it, Mary.

RIGHT HERE. I'm sitting on it... Be careful, it's slippery.

slippery and it's still trying to get away.

Woop. Woop. There. I've got it now. Through the gill.

(GARY) Can you imagine it, Jim? I had him and I didn't have him. Broke the leader snick in two.

Oh boy, what a fish!

(GARY) That's too bad, Jerry. But you missed a thing. You should have been watching those two up above.

there. (GARY) Mary, passed that trout out of the water.

been landed on it there in the rocks.

Isn't it a beauty?

Look! My first one!

It sure is a nice one all right.

1. JERRY: Yeah. I've got to fix up my line, and the way Mary
2. hauled that thing out of the water I know here is all
3. messed up again.

4. SLIGHT PAUSE:

5. JIM: (COMING ON) Well Mary, that's a beauty all right.
6. You've proved yourself a real fisherman now.

7. BESS: (LAUGHS) I think I should get some credit.

8. MARY: Oh yes. If Mrs. Robbins hadn't sat on it....

9. JERRY: It's a nice one all right but compared to the one I had
10. hooked that got away that's nothin' more than a minnow.
11. Boy, I'm tellin' you I haven't had a fish take out line
12. like that...

13. JIM: Say Mary, where'd you hook this fish?

14. MARY: Well I don't know, Mr. Robbins...in the mouth, I suppose.

15. JIM: H-m-m. (CHUCKLES) You musta hooked him in the back...
16. right here in the dorsal fin.

17. JERRY: By George, she did. Of all the down right luck.

18. JIM: H-m-m. Funny. There's part of a leader here in his mouth,
19. too.

20. JERRY: Let's see. Musta been hooked by somebody else before.

21. H-m-m-, there's the fly. It's just like...Yes sir,....
22. it's mine. It's my fish.

23. MARY: What'? It is not. I caught it, Jerry.

24. JERRY: No sir, you did not. I had it hooked in the mouth. See,
25. you were pullin' one way and I was pullin' the other.
No wonder my line broke. As far as you're concerned it was just plain luck.

Yeah. I've got to fix up my line, and the way Harry handled that thing out of the water I know Harry is a manhood up again

(CONTINUED) Well Harry, that's a beauty all right.

You've proved yourself a real fisherman now.

(LAUGHS) I think I should get some credit.

On you. If what Hobbins had's set on it...

It's a nice one all right but compared to the one I had hooked that got away that's nothing, more than a man get, I'm telling you I haven't had a fish like one like

Harry, where'd you hook this fish?

Well, I was out there in the water, I was

Harry. (CONTINUED) You mean hooked him in the back.

Right here in the dorsal fin.

Oh George, she did. Of all the down right luck.

Harry. There's part of a leader here in his mouth.

Let's see. I mean been hooked by somebody else before

Harry. (CONTINUED) I've seen it before.

It's mine. It's my fish.

What? It is not. I caught it, Harry.

He says you did not. I had it hooked in the mouth. And you were pulling one way and I was pulling the other.

He means my line broke. As far as you're concerned, it was just a fish.

1. JIM: (LAUGHS) That proves who the fisherman is. Don't let him
2. talk you out of it, Mary.
3. BESS: (LAUGHS) No wonder Jerry thought he had a big fish.
4. JERRY: (CROSS) By George, I'm gettin' out of here. Mary can have
5. this hole (GOING OFF) I'm goin' on down the creek a ways,
6. where I can catch my own fish without somebody else hookin'
7. 'em.
8. MARY: But Jerry...
9. JIM: (LAUGHING) Never mind, Mary. Jerry just can't appreciate
10. beginner's luck, that's all. He'll see the funny side of
11. it (FADE) after he's hooked a few.
12. MUSIC UP AND OUT.
13. SOUND OF CAMPFIRE AND BESS MAKING SUPPER ON OUTDOOR STOVE.
14. BESS: Put on another stick of wood or two, will you, Jim?
15. It's getting dark and Jerry and Mary ought to be back here
16. pretty soon.
17. SOUND OF WOOD BEING PUT ON FIRE.
18. JIM: Uh huh. Jerry's probably struck some good luck fishing.
19. (CHUCKLES) I hope Mary didn't cross him up any more.
20. BESS: She follwed him down the stream when you went up stream.
21. I think she wanted to make up.....It wasn't very nice of
22. Jerry to be so cross. After all it was just luck.
23. SOUND OF FOOTSTEPS APPROACHING ON TRAIL.
24. JIM: Guess they're comin' now. I sure hope Jerry got some fish.
25. Otherwise we'll have a pretty skimpy supper..(CALLS)HI there, Jerry.

(LAUGHING) That was the fisherman in the boat.

Back now out of it, Harry.

(LAUGHING) No wonder Jerry thought he had a big fish.

(GROSS) By George, I'm getting out of here. Harry is this wife (GOING OFF) I'm going on down the creek a ways.

where I can catch my own fish without somebody else

'em.

But Jerry...

(LAUGHING) Jerry is a fisherman.

beginner's luck, that's all. He'll see the funny side it (WIDE) after he's hooked a few.

END OF ACT ONE

SCENE 2. JERRY'S CAMP AND THE WOODS NEARBY.

But on another patch of wood or two, will you, Jim?

It's getting dark and Jerry and Mary ought to be home soon.

END OF ACT TWO

SCENE 3. JERRY'S CAMP AND THE WOODS NEARBY.

(GROSS) I hope Jerry didn't cross his up any more.

She followed him down the stream when you went up there.

I wish she wanted to make up... It wasn't very nice.

Jerry to be so cross. After all it was just luck.

END OF ACT THREE

SCENE 4. JERRY'S CAMP AND THE WOODS NEARBY.

Others will have a pretty sharp edge.

1. JERRY: DEJECTED, OFF) 'Lo.

2. JIM: What luck, Jerry?

3. JERRY: (COMING ON) Shucks, all I caught was a few little ones.

4. Shucks, no luck at all.

5. BESS: Where is Mary, Jerry?

6. JERRY: Gee, I don't know. Isn't she here? I thought she stayed

7. right close here around camp.

8. JIM: (CONCERNED) No, she followed you down stream when I went

9. upstream.

10. BESS: For goodness sakes. Jim, you don't suppose...

11. JIM: No. I don't think anything could happen to her..nothin'

12. serious at least. She might have fallen and sprained an

13. ankle or something....

14. JERRY: More likely she's lost. By George, I told her not to go

15. too far off.

16. JIM: Well come on, Jerry. (FADE) We've got to go back down the

17. trail and look for her.

18. SLIGHT PAUSE:

19. SOUND OF MEN WALKING ALONG TRAIL THROUGH BRUSH.

20. JERRY: (GRUMBLING) I never saw it to fail, Jim. Every time

21. you bring a woman along on a fishin' trip it's trouble...

22. trouble.and more trouble. No matter what you tell 'em

23. they're always gettin' in the way or gettin' lost or

24. somethin'.

25. JIM: Yeah, but that's beside the point now, Jerry. Mary bein' missin' like this is no joke. We've got to find her.

(COMING ON) Shuckie, all I caught was a few little Shuckie, no look at all.

Where is Mary, Jerry?

Gee, I don't know. Isn't she here? I thought she was right close here around camp.

(CONCERNED) No, she followed you down stream when I

For goodness sake. Jim, you don't suppose.

No. I don't think anything could happen to her. Not serious at least. She might have fallen and sprained something or something.

None likely she's lost. By George, I told her not to go far off.

Well come on, Jerry. (FADE) We've got to go back down

trail and look for her.

FOUND OF MEN WALKING ALONG TRAIL THROUGH BRUSH.

(GRUNTLING) I never saw it so tall, Jim. Every time you bring a woman along on a flashin' trip it's trouble.

trouble, and more trouble. No matter what you tell they're always gettin' in the way or gettin' lost or

Yeah, but that's beside the point now, Jerry. Mary missin' like this is no joke. We've got to find her.

1. JERRY: (SERIOUS) You're tellin' me. To tell the truth, I'm
2. worried plenty, Jim. We're almost a mile below camp
3. and no sign of her yet.

4. JIM: Wait a minute. Listen.

5. SOUND OF SPLASHING IN SHALLOW ROCKY STREAM, OFF.

6. JERRY: Sounds like moose or something walkin' in the creek.
7. By George, I didn't think of that. Supposin' she met up
8. with an old she bear with cubs or something. (SHOUTS)
9. Mary! Wahoo! Hey, Mary!

10. MARY: (OFF) I'm coming, Jerry.

11. SOUND OF SPLASHING THROUGH CREEK AND CRACKING BRUSH)

12. JERRY: Shine your flashlight, Jim.

13. JIM: (CALLS) Can you see the light, Mary?

14. MARY: (OFF) I can see it now, Mr. Robbins.

15. JERRY: I'm comin' Mary....Gee, have we been worried. Are you all
16. right?

17. MARY: (COMING UP) Yes. I'm all right, Jerry...I don't see why
18. you should have been so worried.

19. JERRY: Well it's pretty dark ... Were you lost? We didn't know what
20. might have happened.

21. MARY: No, I wasn't lost, Jerry.

22. JERRY: (FLABBERGASTED) You weren't lost!? What were you doin'
23. then....stayin' away all this time?

24. MARY: Oh I was just trying to see how far I could walk up this
25. stream in the dark without falling in.

(15/11/88) You're telling me. To tell the truth, I'm worried about the whole thing. I'm not sure and I'm not sure that I can do it. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

about the whole thing. I'm not sure

1. JERRY: (ROARS) You what ----?

2. MARY: (BREAKING DOWN) Oh Jerry, I was lost. I've been

3. scared silly. But I didn't want you to be angry. You

4. went off and left me... and ...and I couldn't help

5. it, Jerry.

6. JERRY: Aw now. Don't cry Mary. I'm not angry.

7. MARY: (BLUBBERING) Yes you are and you've got a right to be.

8. You'll never bring me fishing again. You think I'm a

9. nuisance.

10. JERRY: Aw no, Mary. I'll bring you fishing plenty. It's all

11. my fault. There now. There...do you feel better?

12. MARY: (TEARFUL) Uh huh. Mr. Robbins must think I'm terrible.

13. JIM: (CHUCKLES) All I want to know, Mary, is how many fish

14. did you get?

15. MARY: Not many, I'm afraid. Only about six the size of the one

16. I took away from Jerry.

17. JERRY: Wh-what? Six the size.....

18. MARY: Uh huh. I caught a lot of little ones, but you told me

19. to put back all the little ones.

20. JIM: (WHISTLES) Say!. Look at these!

21. JERRY: Holy old mackinaw, look at the fish!

22. MARY: Are they all right, Jerry?

23. JERRY: Are they all.....(FADE) Say Mary, next time you take

24. me fishing, will you?

251 MUSIC: FINALE.

1. JERRY: (ROARS) You what ---?

2. MARY: (BREAKING DOWN) Oh Jerry, I was lost. I've been

3. scared silly. But I didn't want you to be angry. You

4. went off and left me... and... and I couldn't help

5. it, Jerry.

6. JERRY: Aw now. Don't cry Mary. I'm not angry.

7. MARY: (BLUBBERING) Yes you are and you've got a right to be.

8. You'll never bring me fishing again. You think I'm a

9. nuisance.

10. JERRY: Aw no, Mary. I'll bring you fishing plenty. It's all

11. my fault. There now. There... do you feel better?

12. MARY: (TEARFUL) Uh huh. Mr. Robbins must think I'm terrible.

13. JIM: (CHUCKLES) All I want to know, Mary, is how many fish

14. did you get?

15. MARY: Not many, I'm afraid. Only about six the size of the one

16. I took away from Jerry.

17. JERRY: Wh-what? Six the size.....

18. MARY: Uh huh. I caught a lot of little ones, but you told me

19. to put back all the little ones.

20. JIM: (WHISTLES) Say! Look at these!

21. JERRY: Holy old mackinaw, look at the fish!

22. MARY: Are they all right, Jerry?

23. JERRY: Are they all..... (FADE) Say Mary, next time you take

24. me fishing, will you?

25. MUSIC: FINALE.

1. ANNOUNCER: Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers comes to you at this same time
2. each Friday on the National Farm and Home Hour as a
3. presentation of the National Broadcasting Company with the
4. cooperation of the Forest Service, United States
5. Department of Agriculture.

6.

7.

8. em 1:00 PM
5-26-41

9.

10.

11.

12.

13.

14.

15.

16.

17.

18.

19.

20.

21.

22.

23.

24.

25.

Uncle Sam's Forest Rangers comes to you at this same time
each Friday on the National Farm and Home Hour as a presentation of the National Broadcasting Company with the cooperation of the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

ANNOUNCER:

on 1:00 PM
8-28-41

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.
- 10.
- 11.
- 12.
- 13.
- 14.
- 15.
- 16.
- 17.
- 18.
- 19.
- 20.
- 21.
- 22.
- 23.
- 24.
- 25.